The Number of Schedule of Incumbrances finally settled, where the whole or part of the Lands included in the Absolute Order have been sold - - - - -	408

Note.—In a few cases the funds realized by the sales in this Court have been transferred to the Court of Chancery, and no final Schedules have been prepared in these cases; and in several other cases a considerable portion of the funds have been allocated to claimants before the final settlement of the Schedules, the claims having been ascertained and reported in Chancery. In these cases the Schedules will be settled before the case is finally wound up, but the delay in settling it arises from the difficulty of obtaining searches from the Registry Office; consequently this Return does not include such cases.
